Our code of conduct represents values that our community club wants every member to live by. It is to instill in our youth ownership, resilience and a sense of belonging which we hope promotes continued success into adulthood.

How to serve our Savannah Pride Club and Community:

- All fees whether club/ competition must be paid so that our community is to remain sustainable
- All members must not do things to hurt others within the community and disrespect the jersey by stealing, using inappropriate language, fighting, bullying of any nature, using/ selling illegal substances.
- Care & Respect to your coaches and Volunteers by getting to training/games on time or giving advanced notice of any future non attendances
- Serve the club colors with honor by wearing your jersey at training/ competition and not disrespect it by choosing to wear other colors
- Be the best version of yourself when representing the community club in competitions so that it doesn't tarnish your time in service to our community and the jersey
- Speak up – if you see or know of anything that may hurt members or our community, seek out your coaches/ parents committee help
- Being a great member means being a great student. Our homework program is mandatory for all students, “No School No Play” those who are not currently exceeding their school grades, and non school attendances between Y9-Y12.
